

Damaro

Benefit	Evidence to gather	Presentation
Compliance with EPSRC requirements	Senior management approval & continued EPSRC funding	Will be able to judge in 2015!
Increased re-use of Oxford datasets	Datafinder / Databank click-throughs & web tracking.	Monthly statistical report 2013
Improved culture of data sharing	Growth in Data added to DataBank / DataFinder. Longitudinal researcher survey	Monthly statistical report & annual survey from 2013
Improved data management practices	Post-training surveys – ‘what will you do differently’	Training feedback reports from 2013
Inspiring new research	Longitudinal researcher survey	Annual survey from 2012

Damaro Benchmarking Survey results (so far!)

Incomplete survey!

Full results available January 2013

- 170 responses by 23/11/2012
- 67% thought good research data management 'essential' to their research
- 32% of respondent would be willing to share all or most of their data without restrictions; 39% some of their data; 28% none
- 39% of respondents had been inspired to undertake research after looking at data shared by researchers in the past (a further 24% said past shared data influenced this decision)
 - 25% of inspired researchers found this data via a repository
- Demand for DataBank – 25% said they would deposit data within 1st year, an additional 46% didn't know.
- 25% already aware of the University RDM policy